SPECULO

Speculo is a heavy-weight 18/10 stainless flatware and table service line built for banquet halls, private clubs, country clubs, and fine-dining restaurants where every place setting reads intentional. Each piece anchors plated service, buffet lines, and gift-boxed sets with the weight and finish operators expect at the top tier.

Plated Dinner Service

outfit each cover with weighted flatware for tasting menus, prix fixe, and multi-course banquets where every utensil hits the table before the first pour

Table Setup and Pre-Set Covers

dress the tabletop with woven vinyl placemats that lay flat under charger and cover, holding the look from first seating through dessert

Gift and Event Sets

hand off boxed flatware sets for wedding welcome gifts, corporate awards, and hospitality suites where the packaging is part of the experience
